

Children's National

Community Benefit Report Highlights

Children's National Health System is dedicated to providing world-class clinical care and building a community where every child can grow up stronger.

Here is a snapshot of some of our 2017 community benefit efforts.

For more information about Community Benefit please email us at communitybenefit@childrensnational.org

126

community health improvement programs and activities

Over $125 million

in community benefit to improve community health

870

Car Seats

inspected and installed

and

1,500

children and adults educated about passenger safety by the Safe Kids DC program

29

School-Based Health Programs

in 84 DC, Maryland and Virginia schools over the past ten years covering topics including healthy eating, asthma and support for survivors of violence

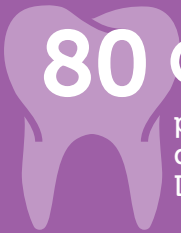

Facilitated calls between Primary Care Practitioners and Mental Health Specialists in Children's National's primary care clinics, streamlining pediatric mental health care

1,000+

HEALTH FAIR

Parents and families reached in their communities through community health fairs, where they learned about topics such as healthy eating, oral health, mental health resources and primary care

80 Children

provided with dental care on Dental Home Day

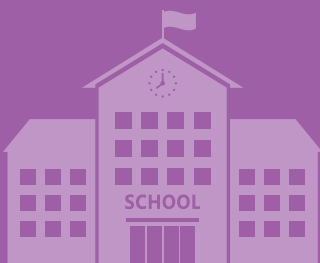

1,132

lactation consultations with new mothers provided by The East of River Lactation Support Center

290 Families

educated about home-safety and burn-prevention

1,000+

Students visited school-based health centers for primary care, dental care and mental health care

885

Parents, coaches and community members educated about concussions by The Safe Concussion Outcome Recovery & Education (SCORE) Program